Comparison of Portfolio Debt Yields Against Peers ⁽¹⁾⁽⁵⁾

Note: Portfolio statistics as of March 31, 2016. Peer yields as of latest available reporting period.

(1) Weighted average yield excludes non-accrual investments; weighted average yield inclusive of the impact of non-accrual investments was 12.1%.

(2) Includes both debt and equity investments, weighted by fair value.

(3) Portfolio Net Leverage as used in this presentation, represents the net leverage of Capitala Finance portfolio companies, weighted by the fair value of the debt investment. Portfolio Net Leverage excludes all equity investments, as well as companies with negative EBITDA and those that do not use EBITDA as a relevant metric in calculating leverage. Portfolio Net Leverage is calculated as net debt divided by adjusted EBITDA. Net debt is calculated as total debt minus cash, and excludes all debt which is subordinate to Capitala Finance's investment.

(4) "Middle market" leverage estimate provided by leading trade publication and includes companies with EBITDA of $50 million or less and represents total investment leverage, not net of cash.

(5) Peer group based on selected combination of market capitalization, investment mix and utilization of SBA funding.

Uniquely Optimized Capital Structure

- Stable liquidity and capital structure provided by SBA debentures and corporate notes with long-term maturities and fixed rates
 - Capitala Group principals have received four SBIC licenses, with a 10+ year track record
- Addition of revolving credit facility provides attractively priced, shorter-term capital with an accordion feature that can grow with the borrowing base

Current Funding Overview

Facility	Interest Rate	Maturity	Amount Drawn (3/31/16)
SBA Debentures	3.43% fixed	2015 – 2023	$182.2 million
Notes Payable	7.125% fixed	Callable June 2017 Matures June 2021	$113.4 million
$120 million Credit Facility	L+300 floating	October 2018	$73.0 million

Notes Maturity Profile ($ in millions)

- 76% of existing notes and debentures mature in 2020 or later
 - $182.2 million of 10-year term SBA guaranteed debentures
 - $113.4 million of 7.125% notes due in 2021
- Obligors for SBA debentures are 2 SBIC licensee subsidiaries; issuer is not an SBIC obligor

Note: As of March 31, 2016.

Uniquely Optimized Capital Structure

- Capitala Finance's unique, primarily fixed-rate liabilities combined with a growing mix of floating rate investments provide an attractive capital structure with limited downside risk to raising interest rates
- As March 31, 2016, Capitala Finance had limited financing exposure to interest rate changes
 - 80% of Capitala Finance's liabilities are fixed rate and not subject to interest rate movements
 - 39% of Capitala Finance's total investments are floating rate and will benefit from increasing interest rates

Vested and Shareholder Aligned Management Team

Fee waivers / investment positioning during economic downturn

- The Company's external manager voluntarily waived all or such portion of the quarterly incentive fees earned by the external manager that would otherwise cause the Company's quarterly net investment income to be less than the distribution payments declared, effective for the fourth quarter of 2015 and extended into 2016
- External manager waived management fees on uninvested IPO proceeds at Capitala Finance level for the first year post-IPO (expired September 30, 2014)
- During the 2008 economic downturn, legacy fund manager waived fees while adding professionals in order to maximize value for its investor base and to position its legacy funds to invest during the early stages of recovery

Stock repurchase program

- For 2015 fiscal year, the Company repurchased 774,858 shares under the program, representing 4.6% of total shares outstanding; equating to ~$12MM of repurchases under the $12MM initial authorization

Special distribution

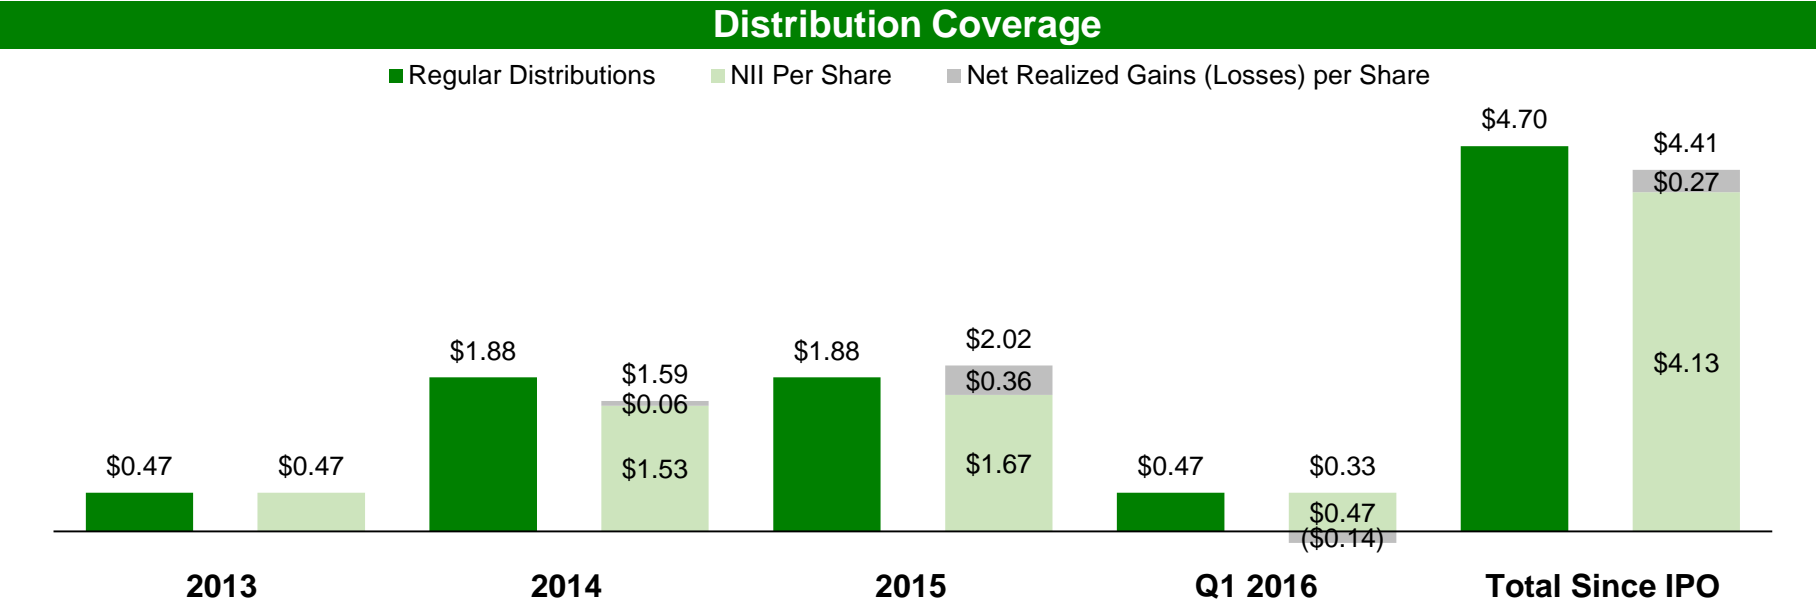

- On March 3, 2015, the Company's board of directors declared a special distribution of $0.50 per common share, paid monthly through December 2015

Management ownership and payment of fees for IPO

- Management team owns over 9% of the common stock and has made meaningful purchases in the open market since the IPO
- Management team rolled over $10.0 million of invested capital into Company shares at IPO
- Management team bore a portion of the IPO expenses using some of its estimated $18.5 million of carried interest and rolled over the remaining balance into Company shares

Distribution Coverage

- Historic track-record since IPO of consistent NII, distribution coverage and realized gains
- Ability to leverage both NII and realized gains to provide distribution stability with a focus on continued coverage of regular distributions through NII

Distinguishing Factors

- ✓ NII covered regular distributions for third consecutive quarter
- ✓ Since IPO, Capitala Finance has paid $4.70 per share in regular distributions and recorded $4.41 per share of NII and realized gains
- ✓ No return of shareholder capital for the tax years ended August 31, 2014 and 2015
- ✓ Capitala Finance paid $0.50 per share of special distributions in 2015

(1) Includes activity for the first full quarter of 2013 after the IPO, the three months ended December 31, 2013.
