Capitala Finance Corp. Announces Distributions

CHARLOTTE, N.C., September 22, 2016 -- Capitala Finance Corp. (the “Company”, “our”, or “Capitala”) (Nasdaq:CPTA) declared normal distributions for the fourth quarter of 2016.

Fourth Quarter 2016 Distributions

On September 22, 2016, the Company’s Board of Directors declared normal monthly distributions for the fourth quarter of 2016 as set forth below:

Record Date	Payment Date	Amount Per Share
10/21/16	10/28/16	$0.13
11/21/16	11/29/16	$0.13
12/21/16	12/29/16	$0.13

Contributing factors in the distribution reduction were (1) pressure on the Company’s net investment income from losses associated with reducing our exposure to energy, (2) an unwillingness to chase yield on new investment opportunities, (3) an emphasis on distribution coverage with net investment income without reliance on realized capital gains, and (4) the drag on net investment income from recent repayments, exits and sales of investments.

Capitala Chairman and CEO Joseph B. Alala, III, stated “Management and the Board of Directors consented that a 17% reduction in the monthly distribution amount is appropriate. Distribution coverage with net investment income, without reliance on an incentive fee waiver, remains a priority for us. The Company is focused on making quality investments with proper risk adjusted returns, both through directly originated lower middle market opportunities, and through co-investment with Capitala Private Credit Fund V, LP.”

The Company has adopted an opt-out distribution reinvestment plan (“DRIP”) that provides for reinvestment of distributions on behalf of its shareholders, unless a shareholder elects to receive cash. As a result, when the Company declares a cash distribution, shareholders who have not opted out of the DRIP will have their cash distributions automatically reinvested in additional shares of the Company’s common stock, rather than receiving cash.
